UNDERGROUND RAILROAD HISTORIC PANEL DISCUSSION

2PM - 4PM

Come and find out why the Underground Railroad was so significant in New York State, why we are now discovering so much about it, and how historic sites in the Underground Railroad Consortium of New York State are telling its remarkable story. Hear the voices of some of the courageous men and women who risked their lives to escape from slavery. Share the experience of ordinary people - black and white, men and women, old and young, rich and poor - who created the extraordinary Underground Railroad network through New York State.

ROCHESTER ORATORICAL SUFFRAGE PROGRAM

2PM - 4PM

Bringing 15 years of experience in community engagement productions, including "destination events" which reflect the values that characterize life in our region: innovation, inclusion, respect, tolerance and equality. The Artistic Director of the Rochester Oratorio Society, Eric Townell, worked with Jeannie M. Guerrero to plan a new program that would honor the 100th anniversary of women's suffrage and connect with young people in a diverse society.
